

Three views of a door lock assembly are shown, stacked vertically. The top view is black, the middle is white, and the bottom is chrome. Each view shows the lock body with a rectangular plate and two screws. The screws are labeled with numbers: 10681 for the black and white versions, and 10685 for the chrome version. The lock body is shown from the side, revealing the internal mechanism and the mounting plate.

